PORTRAIT · CLOSE-UP

Trained at Cours Florent, bilingual, more than 150 dubbing credits — on screen, on stage and behind the microphone.

Passionate about acting since childhood, Périne Lislet made her first short film at the age of 7 in Belgium. She trained at Cours Florent in Xavier Florent's class, after a literary preparatory class and an English degree at the Sorbonne.

Bilingual, she lends her voice to the French dubbing of international productions — including Star Trek: Picard, The Penguin, CSI: Vegas, Elvis, Cruella and Rocketman — and acts on screen, in series and on stage, where she appeared in Constance Dedieu-Grasset's Petite forme et rêves démesurés, directed by Pascal Besson (2022–2024).

Her strength: a versatile voice and polished diction, from dramatic roles to lighter ones.
